

Term 2, Week 9

WINTER WORKSHOPS - JULY SCHOOL HOLIDAYS!!

We are excited to release our Winter Workshop Series for this July School Holidays! We have put together a jam-packed week of classes for you to enjoy throughout the holiday break with a HUGE VARIETY of classes on offer!

WHEN:

These FREE$ workshops are complimentary to help make up for missed lessons over the covid lockdowns and will be held from Monday 5th to Friday 9th of July at Dance etc.

As previously mentioned, these classes have been designed to cater for families still requiring a make-up class after our week of lock down early this term. This Workshop series will be run entirely $FREE for all Dance etc members. Yes, you can even take part in these sessions if you have already done a make-up class during term. We would love to give students the option to attend as many classes they wish so regardless of how many classes you currently attend at Dance etc. please book in to any classes you think might be fun and suitable for your child (what a great way to try something new!?). Please see the timetables attached for all the classes that will be on offer & contact our team for more info. If you are wanting to try an Acro class and do not currently do Acro, please chat to our admin team first to work out a suitable level.

BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL

To book into any of our Workshop Series please email admin@danceetcperth.com. Classes are free for Dance etc students! Non Dance etc students can attend for $10 per class so you are welcome to invite your friends. Please note in the event of classes being fully booked preference will be given to Dance etc families who need to attend a make-up class session.

ANY QUESTIONS?

If you have any queries about our Winter Workshop Series or wish to discuss which classes may be best for your dancer please do not hesitate to get in touch.
